

The accompanying figure is that given by Suhm as the third stage of the development of Sergestes.

"Sergestes larva, in the Amphion-stage. Eight pairs of divided legs, pleopoda and otoliths are formed; n. s. 3.5 mm.; drawing taken from fresh specimens and by the aid of H¹ $\frac{1}{7}$.

FIG. 51.—Acanthosoma. e, Cheiloglossa; pl, pleopoda; other lettering as before.

"Taken April 3, 1875, consequently to the south of Japan, among the Islands of Bonin, 64 × n. s.²

"In the adult animal the mandibles have a palpus; on the other hand, the palpus of

¹ This abbreviation refers to the microscope used in the investigation; in this case a Hartnack with ocular 1, objective 7.

² Fig. 51 reduced for convenience one-third.