

E. GORDIACEA.

Dr. R. v. Willemoes Suhm mentions in his letters from the Challenger¹ a Gordius found in a Crab dredged near New Zealand and another in an Orthopteron without wings from the same island, where species of Gordius are also said to be very common in water.

¹ Challenger Briefs, pp. 103, 107.